Minister Terrell Caused Removal Vali of Aleppo, Whem the Ex-Grand Vizier Succeeds.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 9.—The Official Gazette anonunces that Bahri Pasha, who was dismissed from his official position in pursuance to the representations of the British Ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, owing to his ill-treatment of Armenians, has been decorated with the Grand Cordon of the Osmanien Order "as a reward for his good services."

This step upon the part of the Sultan is considered most significant. It is not only an open and distinct mark of approval of the ill-treatment of Armenians, but it is a deliberate snub to Great Britain, particularly as, in addition to the decoration bestowed upon Bahri Pasha, the Official Gasette publishes a long list of the names of Turkish officials in Armenia who have been decorated by the Sultan for their "good services."

sette publishes a long list of the names of Turkish officials in Armenia who have been decorated by the Sultan for their "good services."

In fact, it almost seems as if the Sultan is openly defying the Powers.

It is understood that the Vall of Aleppo, who is to be succeeded by the ex-Grand Vizier, Klamil Fasha, was dismissed in consequence of the representation of the United States Minister to Turkey, Mr. Alexander W. Terrell, because the Vall refused to permit the United States Consular agent at Aleppo to visit a naturalized American, Guendijam, of Armenian origin, who had been imprisoned for life. Mr. Terrell obtained permission from two grand viziers for the consular agent to visit Guendijam, but the Vall persisted in his refusal to permit the prisoner to be seen. The eventual result was that Mr. Terrell made the strongest representations to the Porte, succeeded in obtaining the dismissal of the Vall, and Guendijam is now on his way to Constantinople to be tried before Mr. Terrell.

The appointment of the ex-Grand Vizier, Kiamil Pasha, a well-meaning man, as Vall of Aleppo, is only another way of sending him to exile. He may not be actually exiled, but he will not be allowed to return from Aleppo until it suits the Porte. He is charged with many things, but the sum and substance of it seems to be that he has been made a scapegoat for the sins and lack of mercy of others. The Sultan had to do something, so he changed his 'Grand Vizier and turned over his Cabinet. He may have gained some time by so doing, but that seems to be about all.

In addition to the exile of Klamil Pasha to Aleppo, it is reported that a number of high personages have been exiled to Anatonolia, but it is difficult to get at the truth in such matters, as persons reported "exiled" sometimes find their way to the bottom of the Bosphorus.

The rumors of palace conspiracies, which have been in circulation for months, continue to be talked about. The deposed Sultan, Mohammed Kuser, so persons who besuitering from idicoy, is once more mention

The Ottoman Bank has advanced the Turkish Government $1,500,000, which will enable the new Minister of Finance, Sabri Pasha, to provide for the more pressing needs of the Government. The latter, it would seem, consist in fitting out the army reserves just called out in the Porte's attempt to make some show of trying to restore order in Armenia, but there are so many other demands upon the Turkish Treasury at the present moment that the money just advanced will not gold long way, even if it was placed to legitimate uses, which is not likely to be the case.

Over a hundred Armenians were argested yesterday at Stamboul, and all the inquiries made as to the cause of their imprisonment have failed to obtain a satisfactory answer.

Miss Juliette Farish, the accomplished daughter of Edward S. Miss Farish has studied elecution for some time, and with her growth in the art, she talked of her stage aspirations until seciety gossip had it that she was about to enter the lists of professionals. PROTECTION OF COAST.

ommendations Made by Gen. Miles in His Report as Commander.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.-A special to the essness of the coasts of the United States s made by Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, com-lessness of the coasts of the United States is made by Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army, in his annual report to the Secretary of War.

The report is the first that Gen. Miles has submitted in the capacity of a "Major General commanding the army," and considerable space is given up to the necessity of taking some steps to protect the sea coast. It has been estimated that to fortify all our coasts would cost in the neighborhood of $125,000,000. To put the Pacific coast in a proper condition of defense would require in the neighborhood of $35,000,000. To put the Pacific coast in a proper condition of defense would require in the neighborhood of $35 modern guns and mortars with their proper carriages and munitions. It has also been estimated that their cost would be something like $10,000,000.

Gen. Miles has recommended in the past that $25,000 be appropriated to perfect titles to strategic points necessary to be occupied for the defense of the Pacific coast; that $1,000,000 be appropriated for the establishment of a plant to be constructed under the direction of a board of officers of the army and navy to be ordered by the President for the construction of effective guns and war materials for the army and navy on the Western coast and that $25,000,000 or such portion of it as can be utilized in four years, be authorized to be expended for the construction of the most improved and effective guns and war materials as will be required on that coast.

It is believed that Gen. Miles makes recommendations of a somewhat similar character in his present annual report. He has also urged the appropriation of a large sum for the erection of fortifications for the protection of the Atlantic coast. Suggestions are also made with reference to the great lakes.

DIED FROM NEGLECT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.-A three-weeks baby died at Police Headquarters yesterday in terrible agony. Short as was its ex-istence, the babe had borne more sufferings and undergone more inhumanity than comes to many in a life time of three-score and ten.

Even to the last the little one was denied all aid. Believue and St. Vincent's Hospital denied the tiny sufferer, where its last moments might have been eased. Perhaps had prompt attention been secured it would be alive to-day.

August Mohr, a baker's boy at 1630 Third avenue, found the baby on Thursday evening in the basement of the shop. At the foot of the stone steps he stumbled oven a bundle of dirty rags. He opened it and saw the child within, unconsclous.

A policeman took the wretched object to the station house, where its pinched face and great hollow eyes and long bird-like claws, to which hunger had worn its hands, aroused pity on all sides.

At headquarters the baby's tongue was so swollen that it could take no nourishment. Matron Travers said that she asked Surgeon Joyce to take the child to St. Vincent's Hospital, but he retused. Neither would he take it to Hellevus.

After six hours of the most terrible agony the little one died.

NEW YORK, Nov 2.—Some good may come out of the new paper trust. At the meeting of the mill owners yesterday it was practically agreed that they should inaugurate a system of scientific forestry in their territory in this and other States. Hereafter they propose to cut up trees under twelve inches They have cut down and utilized every stick of timber available. Hersafter they propose to cut no trees under twelve inches in diameter. As their mills represent a product of at least 1,00 tons of paper saily, and as they own thousands of acres of the best timber lands in the Adirondacks, the importance of the decision will be appreciated by everybody who has the preservation of forests at heart.

"I think such a proposition is absurd, but I have no fears of such a bill becoming a law. "But it is not this delay at great expense to the State and city?"

In a few minutes four shots were heard and Applegate was found near the corn field in which he had been at work with a builet through the head, which had produced instant death.

HIS LITTLE GIRL OBJECTED.

So He Took Mrs. Louisa M. Hartmann to Alton and Quietly Married Her.

Let cynics scoff and laugh at love; all others who read this story will know that iove is real and rules the world.

It will particularly interest the friends of Louis Seidel of 7725 Michigan avenue, in the Missouri River Commission, and the friends in Washington, D. C., of Mrs. Louisa

M. Hartmann that was.

After 30 years, with at least one previous marital experience on the part of each, this couple have renewed the romance of their youth, and last evening quietly stole over to Edwardsville, M., secured a license

On the story page of a family paper?

Only one person besides the participants knew of the elopment until Saturday morning. He is a fellow employe of Mr. Seidel and saw the publication of the marriage license. When he asked Mr. Seidel about it the latter admitted his third venture into matrimonial fields, but pledged his friend to secreey. He did not enlighten him as to the romance of it.

This is a story that has to be commenced at the beginning. That was at Santa Fe, N. M., where Mr. Seidel was in the Government service. He was about it years old then. He is now 48. His cousin, Miss Louisa M. Hartmann, her first husband having been also a relative, hearing.

It was widened by relatives in Washington, who desired Miss Hartmann to wed her other relative, because he was wealthier than Mr. Seidel. She waited in vain for some word from the man she loved, then yielded. The marriage with Mr. Hartmann was one of convenience. There was money on both sides, and it was desirable to keep it in the family. Mrs. Hartmann have she would never wed again, physician, and, entirely independent, remained true to her first love.

Meanwhile Mr. Seidel himself had awaited a word from his beloved that would bring reconciliation. It didn't come, and he became a rover. At Leavenworth, Kan., he met the woman who became the mother of his two children, the oldest a boy now it years old. About nine years ago Mr. Seidel's wife died, and once more he married.

His second wife was año a native of Leavenworth. Something over two years ago Mr. Seidel, who has been in the Government service since his first romance, was transferred to St. Louis, and became connected with the Missouri River Commission. His second wife died shortly after the removal to St. Louis.

Then Mr. Seidel's thoughts once more reverted to his first love. He knew that she was still in Washington and still a widow. He wrote to his first love. He knew that she was answered. Last week it was arranged that Mrs. Hartmann was to come to St. Louis, and that they were to be married. She arrived last Thursday, was met at the depot by Mr. Seidel, and went with him to his home on Michigan avenue.

Mr. Seidel's 10-year-old daughter had suspected for some time that their father intended to bring them a new mother, and had put her foot down hard upon the proposition. Why the Mayor and Col. Frank · Were Not Invited.

REBUKE TO MR. WALBRIDGE

He Has Been Too Gay and Filley Is Training Nagel for the Gubernatorial Handicap.

As intimated by yesterday's Post-Dis-patch, neither Mayor Walbridge nor Col Nat Frank was invited to the dinner which Col. Frederick B. Brownell gave to the ten Republican Congressmen-elect at the St. Louis Club Thursday evening, and over which Uncle Filley presided, with Editor McCullagh on his right full of merry quip

Now, why weren't Mayor Walbridge and Col. Frank invited to that dinner? Nobody but Uncle Filley can answer the question fully, and as his typewriter is believed to be out of fix, it isn't probable that any satisfactory answer will be obtained for a satisfactory answer will be obtained for a long time.

The dinner was given by Col. Brownell only in the sense that he paid the freight. Uncle Filley is the genius that inspired it and it was his typewriter that clicked off the invitations. This thought suggests the probability that the machine broke down when it was made to indite an invitation to Editor McCullagh, and, like grandfather's clock, it refused to run again. But even this charitable view of it is no balm to the wounded feelings of Mayor Walbridge and Col. Frank. The slight put upon them was evidently intentional, and, as the cautious rural correspondent says when reporting a murder in his community for the city papers, "the end is not yet. The same ostensible cause which induced "De Ole Man" to put the Hon. Cyrus Packard Walbridge—that is, granting that Col. Nagel's official position alone influenced Uncle Filler of the position alone influenced Uncle Filler.

Nagel's name in the pot applied with greater force to the Hon. Cyrus Packard Waibridge—that is, granting that Col. Nagel's official position alone influenced Uncle Filley in the matter.

Then, if the President of the Council, who is second in rank to the Mayor, should be urged to eat with the party's Congressmenelect, what rule of official or other sort of etiquette prevents the same invitation with even more urgency being extended the Mayor?

en more urgency being extended the ayor?
Also and likewise as to Col. McCullagh dd Col. Frank. They are both editors of rry organs, and if this consideration one influenced Uncle Filley, why should ol. Frank be snubbed? Nobody doubts at there is as much rollicking fun in l. Frank as in Col. McCullagh and that e is as capable as the other of setting e table in a roar. Then why, to repeat e question, was Col. Frank slighted? Col. Frank has partly got even with Uncle lley by not saying a word in his paper out the dinner, though he wields a penery whit as facile as that of Col. Mccullagh, who wrote a perious account of cullagh, who wrote a there or Col. Mc-cullagh, who wrote a there was not only particular to mak his personality bristle in every line, but was also careful to see that his name appeared in the proper place among the specially invited guesta.

in every line, but was also careful to see that his name appeared in the proper place among the epecialty invited guests.

Rose who profess to keep close tab on Republican happenings and designs see in this slight put upon Mayor Walbridge and Col. Frank a purpose far more significant than the mere sidetracking of the Hon. Benjamin Franklin Russell's boom for Sergeant-at-Arms of the National House, and that it is the deliberate intention of Uncle Filley to throttle at their inception all other gubernatorial ambitions in the interest of the Hon. Charles Nagel. As frequently pointed out by the Post-Dispatch, Mayor Walbridge for a long time has been aware of a dangerous drift of independent sentiment, not only in St. Louis, but also throughout the State, setting in toward Mr. Nagel for most anything he might wish, and for months the Mayor-has been exerting his utmost energies to divert this drift toward himself. He thought the first necessary move in this undertaking would be to cut loose from 'De Ole Man.' and so he utterly ignored the prophet of the mosque in the make-up of his slate last spring. Then he followed this up by doing the Grover Cleveland act of appointing his private secretary, the owlish and close-mouthed Flewellyn Saunders, to the Board of Election Commissioners, over the protest of the entire State Republican organization, which means the Filley machine.

This has so infuriated Uncle Filley as to cause him to take up the very man whom the Mayor fears; and so it has come to pass that Col. Chas. Nagel, the pinkest and one of the most exquisite of all the Silkstockings, is to be the Filley candidate for Governor of Missouri. And who will dare to say "De Ole Man" nay with such a candidate before the State convention? Not even Col. Dick Kerens.

Well may young Mayor Webster Davis of Kansas City step aside, and with uncovered head stand breathless while Uncle Filley

Dick Kerens.

Well may young Mayor Webster Davis of Kansas City step aside, and with uncovered head stand breathless while Uncle Filley marches down the center aisle arm in arm with the attenuated and angular Nagel. And so may all the rest of the ambitious horde who think they stand some show for the gubernatorial nomination. Young Mr. Davis spoke by the card when he recently returned to Kansas City from a pligrimage to the mosque and announced with tears in his voice and a lump in his throat that "Mr. Filley has another candidate for Governor."

Judge Elijah Norton of Plattsburg, ex-

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, is at the Laclede, and the gleam in his keen, brown eyes is believed to be the reflection from the fires of the senatorial ambition now burning in him.

The Judge is a great goldbug and thinks he sees what he calls the spirit of compromise becoming dominant in the party. "There is no use talking about it." said he to a Post-Dispatch reporter, "that convention for the selection of delegates to the National Convention must be postponed. If I were running the party or the committee I would listen to no proposition which fixed that convention. Pertie Springs or ho Pertle Springs, the Democratic of Missouri are in no temper to be fooled with. They want time to study over this financial problem and think it out for themselves. They will not be hurried, and those who attempt it are undertaking a dangerous job. "I have the utmost confidence in the sober second thought of the people, and they must have time to think about this coloning question. I am in favor of the ainteteen new committeemen being recognized at an early date if they display, some such spirit of compromise as I have indicated, but not otherwise."

Judge Norton may remain in St. Louis until Monday, It is presumed that he will confer with the Francis-Mariit obstructionists to-day or to-morrow, and that then a movement will be started to bring him out as a candidate for the Senate against Senator Vest.

Joseph G. Cannon of the Danville district, who has been spending several days in Chicago, left here for Washington to-day.
Before leaving town he talked of the prospective work of Congress. "I'd on not think," he said "that there will be any general revision of the tariff; in fact, I do not see how it can be expected with the House. Republican, the Senate having neither party in the majority and the Executive Democratic. I think if we can get through our work and have Congress adjourn by June I, it will be doing the country a sorvice which business men will appreciate..."
"Will not the Government need more revenues?"
"Yes, sir; and it will have to get those revenues inrough protective duties. If there was any probability that we could get laws on the statute books which would raise revenues enough to meet the expenses of the Government through increased customs duties giving discriminating protection, I think the House ought to pass such laws. But with the political chaos which exists it is a serious question whether we ought to prolong the uncertainty, for months.
"How, then, would you meet the needs of the Government?"
"By giving the Administration power to issue short-time Treasury, warrants. This would be practicable and would provide all the funds that are needed."

ALABAMA SILVER MEN. They Will Try to Nominate a Silver

Democrat for Governor. CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 9 .- A special to the Tribune from Birmingham, Ala., says: Democratic harmony in Alabama went to Democratic harmony in Alabama went to pieces when Gov. Oates announced his willingness to again lead sound money Democrats in the State campaign, and Senators Morgan and Pugh. Representative Blackhead and several other silver Democrats, as the result of a conference held here yesterday, deelded to make a fight inside the party. The conference adopted Senator Morgan's suggestion that each county Democracy authority fix the qualification of voters in primaries at a declaration to support the nominees. The State Committee, therefore, has denied admission to primaries of all who falled to support the nominee in the previous election. The Morgan plan lets in Popullists, who will help nominate a silver Democrat for Governor. Representative Underwood and his followers were for party harmony and temporary relegation of silver to the rear, but were outwood. Senators Morgan and Pugh will stump the State for silver, beginning at Tuscaloesa to-day. It is practically conceded they will support Joseph-F. Johnson of Sirmingham, who was defeated by

A REVENUE BILL. It Is Proposed to Levy a Tax on Lum-

"From talks with Representative Reed, Senator Carter and others, the general idea seems to be to pass a revenue bill covering lumber, wool and beer, so as to furnish the required revenue. Then, if the bill is vetoed by the President, they will be able to throw the responsibility for its failure upon him. In the maantime, we may have another issue of bonds. Secretary Carlisle, I understand, is going to propose special legislation in order to place the responsibility on Congress."

A Small Boom for Davis.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK. Nov. 9.—Some of the big men from the West got together yesterday in the Fifth Avenue Hotel and talked politics with becoming vigor. Bilver and Western presidential possibilities were the chief topics. Senator Carter of Montana, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, was the central figure. With him was ex-Gov. Hauser of the same State. Ansei Oppenheim of St. Paul and H. N. Lambertson of Winona, Minn., started a little boom for Senator Cushman K. Davis as a presidential possibility and promised a great Republican majority in that State. Mr. Oppenheim is a Democrat. Special to The Post-Dispatch, marches down the center aisle arm in arm with the attenuated and angular Nagel. And so may all the rest of the ambitious horder who think they stand some show for the gubernatorial nomination. Young Mr. Davis spoke by the card when he recently returned to Kansas City from a pilsyrimage to the mosque and announced with tears in his voice and a lump in his throat that "Mr. Filley has another candidate for Governor."

HAULING GRAVEL

THE FUR WILL FLY.

Western Foot Ball Champions Meet on the Gridiron This Afternoon.

the Gridiron This Afternoon.

This afternoon at Sportsman's Park the great foot-ball game between the Missouri University and the Northwestern University of Chicago will be pulled off, and as it will be the list big game St. Louis will have this season, and as it will be played rain of shine, and therefore no uncertainty exists, the lovers of the Zame will doubtless turn out in force.

It will be a battle royal between two great teams. The visitors have a record, having met with deceat only once this season. That was at the hands of Wisconsin, but afterwards the Northwesters made emends by defeating the Chicago University by a score of 22 to 6 after Chicago University had defeated Wisconsin by a big score.

The Missouri University, like its competitor, has met with only one defeat this season. That was at the hands of Nebraska, and as the game was played at Omaha and the Nebraska team bad the unpire and referee and the people in the grand stand at the back of them, the Missouri boys thought they got decidedly the worst of it fin the matter of decisions, and they so strongly believe that they were not fairly defeated that the likelihood is the game will be protested.

It goes without saying therefore that with two such teams pitted against each other, each will look to its laurels and the free will fig. There are good men in both teams. Van Duser, captain and left halfback, will play for the Northwestern, and Potter, Pendleton and Allen of the same team were members of the crack Baker team of last year. As will be scen, the Missouri team's average weight is slightly below that of their opponents, but the difference in weight will be evened up by the activity and tactics of the home team.

CRIPPLED FOR LIFE

Johnnie Brennan Teases an Old Man at Biddle Market With Serious Results.

Little Johnnie Brennan, a 12-year-old boy living at 1928 North High street, went to play at Biddle Market this morning. He is now at the City Hospital a cripple for life. now at the City Hospital a cripple for life. The boy and two or three compaditions were teasing Anton Rixar, an old Frenchman, who keeps a fruit stand at the market. He is 70 years old and of very irascible disposition, and has been a mark for all the small boys living in the neighborhood for some time past. It has been their practice to get the old man to chase them so that some of their number could steal fruit from the stand the moment he turned his back. This morning Ruxar started after the boys and one of them, supposed to be John Wilson, living at 1016 North Thirteenth street, turned and threw a stone at him. The old man carried a sharp hatchet in his hand, and when the stone was thrown he hurled the weapon at his fleeing tormentors. he hurled the weapon at his needs to mentors.

The blade struck Johnnie Brennan on the left heel, inflicting a deep gash. The boy dropped in the street and was sent to the City Dispensary in an ambulance. There it was found the Achilles tendon had been completely severed. The victim was sent to the hospital. Ruxar was locked up at the Third District Station. Wilson is held as a witness.

The board discussed the subject, and decided to make a canvass in order to obtain the required sum before Jan. 1, when Dr. Pearson's offer expires.

Two years ago Dr. Pearson made a proposition to give $25,000 to the college if its officers raised $75,000 within a year. The $75,000 was obtained, and Dr. Pearson kept his promise. He also renewed his proposition for this year, and the officers of the college has thus far collected $25,000. The greater part of the $157,000 raised in the past two years has been obtained in Missouri, and much of it represents the beneficence of St. Louisians.

His wife and Bowler's first wife were sisters, and the two men had always exchanged visits. Her sons, William and John Mackin, supported her, in this.

Attorney Bashaw, for the defendant, was ready and admitted that the woman known as Mrs. Lippincott was Bowler's widow, but he denied all knowledge of it on the part of Rose.

William Bowler, for the defense, testified that he never heard of the marriage until proceedings were begun against Rose. He stated that his father remained for days at a time at Mrs. Lippincott's.

The property sold is located on the south side of the street, between King's highway and Brannon avenue fine city block 4070. The property is bounded on the south by an alley. It is almost 30 feet deep, at one time it was rumored that a church would be erected on the property, but Vaughn Noland, who purchased it on Saturday, will probably subdivide it into building lots and dispose of it in that shape.

THE CABINET VIEW.

President Cleveland's clerk, who makes more ridiculous than it otherwise would be that governmental humbug known as the Department of Agriculture, serves as the mouthplece of the Administration in crowing over the defeat of the Demo-

Over the crushing of the New York ocracy Secretary Morton expresses ense gratification in language saturated with taunting bitterness.

The humiliating disasters of the party in New Jersey. Ohio and Maryland are sources of exuberant delight to him and he revels over them with coarse and studied sarcasm.

But the joy of Mr. Cleveland's man does not reach its height until he touches on the losses of the Democracy in Kentrict, when it breaks into unrestrained glee. He cackles with inbilation over the fact that two galiant Democrats, Hardin and Lane, have been defeated.

Mr. Morton is careful to declare with articular emphasis that he speaks for himself as a plain citizen and not as a member of the Cabinet. But he is a mem. ber of the Cabinet and every one knows that he would not dare utter a word displeasing to his master. It is safe to wager that every word of his interview was read and approved by Mr. Cleveland and his cronies and that the boss and all of his Cabinet clerks chuckled over the performance of the Presidential jester. The man who thus assails and taunts better Democrats to whom he owes the fat sinecure he is enjoying is a veteran hireling of the corporations and has devoted all his political energies to the task of binding the Democratic party to their service. His last service to plutocracy was to organize a bolt among the Ne-braska Democrats which rendered them powerless and has given him occasion to rejoice over their defeat by plutocratic

Mr. Morton's record and his capacity for spectacular toadying make him emi-nently qualified for membership in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet.

THE CRIMINAL COURT LOCATION.

It is to be hoped that the House of Delegates will come to a proper sense of its duty and reconsider the amendment its duty and reconsider the anti-garret of the Four Courts.

Economy and convenience are the only two points which can legitimately be con ed in the location of the new Criminal Court and both of these considerations have been wholly discarded in the arrangement agreed upon by the House. The two Criminal Courts should be on the same floor and as near together as possible, not for the convenience of the the public and the jurors and the saving of cost. To put one division of the Criminal Court on the third floor while the other is on the main floor is to make the most inconvenient and costly arrangement possible. The location of the court there will necessitate the fitting up of the room and possibly the strength-

The Council adopted the best arrange-ment when it provided for the removal of Judge Peabody's court to the Chestnut Street Station, which could be done with the least possible inconvenience and cost. If Judge Peabody can defeat this plan for his own personal convenience and sub-stitute one that puts the public to great inconvenience and cost, it will prove that the House cares more for political sulls

The Council should adhere to its plan and the House recede from its diagraceful position of subservience to political influence. The question should be settled right at once.

HARMONY-A PABLE

Once upon a Time there were Twelve urymen. They sat in Court and heare Case and were told of the law by a earned Judge. Then they retired to onsider their Verdict.

They stayed all Day and all Nigh They stayed all Day and all little talking and wrangling and wrangling and talking. When brought into Court before the Learned Judge he asked them why they did not Agree.

One of the Twelve spoke up and sald:
"Oh, Learned Judge, there is but one one that is that obstacle to Harmony, and that is that these eleven Obstinate Jurymen will not Agree with Me. Compel them to Agree with Me and there will soon be Harmony and a Verdiet."

The Learned Judge eyed him severely

The Learned Judge eyed him severely and returned the Twelve to their Room. But the Eleven were still Obstinate and would not yield to the One, so there was

As TO "LYING."

Caught in the network of its own circulation affidavits, the poor old Republic shricks like a fishwife that somebody is "lying." Every fact and figure printed by the Post-Dispatch about the Repub-lic's circulation was taken from the tabulated figures published from time to time at the head of the Republic's editorial page and purporting to be sworn to. Nothing has been added to the figures thus sworn to and published, and nothing has been taken from them. If, therefore, they are "lies," they are Republic "lies,"

No wonder its "lies" gall when they come home to roost. For, more forcibly than any words could do, they tell the story of a declining newspaper and a repudiated organ that is gradually sinking to the prostration from which it was rescued in 1888. They point the lesson The Republic's present management has shown that it could not even keep what was left in its hands by the present edof the Post-Dispatch when "his services were dispensed with," to use the Republic's own euphemism.

The Republic is guilty of silliness as well as falsehood when it tries to explain the fatal figures by asserting that the comparison was made between figures of and the campaign year figures of 1892. Here are the figures reproduced by the Post-Dispatch from the Republic's own affidavits:

MONTH 11 1800 | 1800 | 1804 | 1806

July		51,757			fowl is
September October November December	64,483 64,483 69,196	53,316 53,247 58,589 54,062	53,317 51,892 52,334	50,865 49,565
Av. six months.

These figures (sworn to by the Republic) show a steady and rapid decline from year to year during the entire four years. As an example, the showing for the month of October during the four years is as follows:

October, 1892, average dally circulation, 64,483; October, 1893, average daily circulation, 53,247; October, 1894, average daily circulation, 51,892; October, 1895, average daily circulation: 49.565.

Thus, according to the Republic's own figures, sworn to by its publisher as correct, the falling off in the daily circulation from October, 1892, to October, 1895, was 14.918. Between these two dates at least 75,000 copies have been added to the total daily circulation of St. Louis newspapers. Of this increase the Republic has not only obtained none, but has lost nearly 15,000 copies of what it had three years ago. And these figures are from its own affidavits. If they "lie," it is the Republic that has done the "lying.". THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

Readers of to-morrow's Sunday Post Dispatch will enjoy a treat even surpass ing the sanguine expectations aroused by the excellence of its predecessors in the autumn and winter series now under way. In the timeliness and interesting nature of its leading features, in the unvarying beauty of its illustrations, in its special stories and well-told news, it will be without a rival outside of New York City. The Sunday Post-Dispatch's control of material in the Sunday field is now such that it practically has no competition in

Among the features for to-morrow will be the following: Beggars and Millionaires Awalt His Healing Touch—The remarkable story of Francis Schlatter, the Colorado healer, who claims Christ-like power over disease and suffering. He will leave Denver for Chicago next week, and will probably visit St. Louis in the near future. His career is the marvel of a realistic and skeptical age. (Illustrated.) With Dog and Gun in Autumn Field and Woods—An idvilic story of the good shooting now to be found near St. Louis, with interesting mention of well-known St. Louis sportsmen, pictures of famous local hunting-dogs and a beautiful fourcolumn cut of a shooting-party in the meadows after quall.

A member of the Democratic State Cen nineteen signatures to the call for a meeting of the committee are required to make it valid under the Pertle Springs rule. This is a mistake. It is the habit of the smoking habitues of Every Democrat knows that the Republic all along has been a gold bug at heart, but that it lacks the honesty to say so. At times it has damned bimetallism with faint praise and the remainder of its efforts have been directed toward floundering about on the financial question.

Its harmony song is rank demagogery. Harmony, according to the Republic, consists of surrender of the honest and active Democrats of Missouri to David R. Francis and the National Administration's Eastern demands.

fourth-class effices will be included in the consolidation.

This is the first step toward the extension of the civil service over the fourth-class postmasters. The jurisdiction and system of a big office like St. Louis will be extended out forty or fifty miles, and under the St. Louis Postmaster will bring in as subordinates all of the Postmasters within that distance. From the St. Louis Postmaster will bring in as subordinates all of the Postmasters within that distance. From the St. Louis Postmaster all orders will emanate; to him all reports will be made. He, in turn, will be subject to the department at Washington. There will be no change of name at the small office. Mail will be delivered as before, only, in all probability, oftener and with greater dispatch. The Postmaster will cease to be a politician; will probably no longer be called a Postmaster, but be known as a postal clerk or, at most, as a postal superintendent. The system will not be introduced all at once, but gradually, by successive orders from Washington.

It is a logical inference that under a civil service classification a 11,200 or 11,400 clerk would do the work quite as well, no doubt better, than a Postmaster receiving $2,500.

Judge Little of Ohio Decides for the Operators. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2.—Judge Little of Xenia, O., who was chosen to arbitrate the basis of wages for mining in Ohio, has found in favor of the operators. The mining scale in Ohio is determined by the prevailing rate in western Pennsylvania. The miners claimed 60 cents a ton was the prevailing rate, and the operators claimed 64 cents. It was shown that seven-eighths of the coal produced in western Pennsylvania was mined at 61 cents, and Judge Little held that was the prevailing rate. Only operators having their own stores pay 69 cents in western Pennsylvania. On the basis of the arbitration, the rate in Ohio will be advanced from 51 cents to 85 cents a ton.

After being placed on the hands the gloves are inflated with air by a tube back of the wristband. Every part of the hand is protected by an air cushion from two to three inches thick. It is claimed for the gloves that they ralieve boxing of brutality, and there is not the lar to the body that is felt with the hard, hair-stuffed gloves generally used. W. H. Rocap and P. H. Birchall boxed with the new gloves in the Philadelphia Sparring and Fencing Club the other night. After the bouts heither of the men showed any abrasions of the skin or bruises of any kind. Then Mr. Doyle, instructor in fencing of the club, a man of immense strength, put one of the gloves on and punched a big poet several times as hard as he could swing his arm, in an effort to burst the gloves, but it never phased them. Thomas Kelly, a motorman on the Union Depot Railroad, sot into a dispute Fritay night with an unknown man at Gravois and Arsenal street about his fare. The passenger struck Kelly in the face and than jumped from the car.

On the return trip the same man was in waiting when he jumped off and threw a stone at Kelly. The missile missed its mark, but broke two windows of the car. The man escaped.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.—The ne special to The Pest-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 2.—The negotiations that have been pending for some time between John Jacob &stor, William K. Vanderbilt, Wm. Cullen Brewster and other New York millionaires and Mrs. H. Bloomleid Moore and Inventor Keely, for the control of Mrs. Moore's interest in the Keely motor have come to an end.

At a conference in this city on Thursday, the question of organising a Keely power company to bring out Keely's invention when complete was discussed, and it was announced by New Yorkers present that if Keely would move his laboratory to New York they would erect for him a new building and back him to the extent of several million dollars.

This proposition was rejected, because neither Mrs. Moore nor Mr. Keely would consent to the latter going to New York, nor would they entertain any proposition to organise a new company until a public demonstration has been given of the certain operation of the invention. Another reason given was that they wanted to prevent speculation in Keely stock until the inventor has completed a patentable machine.

I then began to advise my members who were sick to use it, and in every case where the directions were strictly obeyed the treatment was successful. In a few years past hundreds of bottles have been used directly through my advice. Paine's celery compound is far better than any other remedy, and leaves no bad effects in the system. Its minifold healing qualities make it a boon of life and a blessing to the afflicted beyond any preparation within my reach."

The great falling off in the amount of rheu-matism, neuralgia and nervous weakness that physicians have everywhere noted comes from the widespread knowledge that there is no need of suffering any longer from these common diseases. Dr. Baird is known as a practical worker. His health was broken by the severe winter climate in Michigan some time ago, and he seemed likely to be obliged to give up his work. But he resorted to the use of that easily obtained remedy, Paine's celery compound, and was himself again, energetic and active as ever, within a few weeks.

The reasonable, undisguised way in which Paine's celery compound fortifies the body against nervous exhaustion and rebuilds its shattered parts has been freely explained by physicians, the best of whom to-day always look to this great remedy where debility is to be overcome. It does its work thoroughly, and speedily.
